IT IS SAID that a nation is only as great as it's people. This also holds true for a school. A school is only what its students, faculty, and administration make it. Here at Sunnyslope High we are fortunate to have not only expert hands at the helm of our ship, but a wonderful crew in our student body. We have set our sights on making Sunnyslope High worthy of its rightful place among America's great schools. We have all truly helped her establish the tradition and reputation of a fine school.

Dedication..

TO MR. LORENZ J. KEMPF, one of the most highly-esteemed men on our campus . . . a man who has devoted four years to the growth and development of S.H.S. and is one who has been instrumental in guiding her students through their high school days . . . to him we dedicate this book . . . with pride and gratitude.

A View of Sunnyslope High School

DEAR STUDENTS:

Putting out the 1957 Valhalla has been one of the most trying yet enjoyable experiences we have ever had. The theme of our book is "Valhalla Varieties"; which we feel is appropriate for life here at Sunnyslope High School.

There are many thanks due to various departments and individuals. Starting from the outside in, we owe a tremendous vote of thanks to David Strand for designing and drawing our cover; to the Art Department, under the guidance of Mr. Geiger, and Sally Balogh for helping with the division pages; to the administration for its cooperation and tolerance; and to the book store for the distribution of the annual. Without the able guidance and assistance of our sponsor, Mr. Howard McConnell, much of this fine work would not have been possible. We owe an immeasurable amount of thanks to Mr. McBee and the Photo Department for the pictures in the Valhalla; they are only amateurs but their pictures are worthy of professional praise.

Last but not least we come to our annual staff. We as editors are tremendously grateful to this terrific group of kids; without them we would have no book.

And without your 1957 VALHALLA, we feel our Seniors would be leaving our ranks without a treasured memory of an eventful school life. We truly hope this book will serve as a link between your high school days at Sunnyslope and your days in the future. Speaking for the Annual Staff, we wish you the best of everything in the years to come.

Sincerely,

Linda Lewis
